Established in May of 1995, the First Clarksville Conservatory is a Christian Private Lesson Program providing students and adults the opportunity to study music in a church environment. All lessons will be taught in the church building, 435 Madison Street.

The faculty consists of qualified, competent, Christian teachers. Many of the instructors have degrees in music and all have vast experience in their field.

The First Clarksville Conservatory offers a wide variety of instrumental and vocal instruction in a private setting. Whether you are a beginning, intermediate or advanced musician, we provide instruction for students of all ages who seek to develop their talents.

Private Instruction is available for:

Piano Voice Guitar Ukulele

Violin Flute Clarinet Percussion

Other instruments are available by request.

Up to two make-up lessons will be given, provided the student gives the teacher at least a six hour notice of a missed lesson. It is the student's responsibility to notify the teacher or the Conservatory if a lesson is to be missed. Failure to notify the teacher will forfeit the opportunity to make up the lesson. The Conservatory Office and instructors reserve the right to rule whether a lesson is to be made up or not.

Weather Policy:

The Conservatory will notify students and parents of cancelled lessons due to inclement weather via email when necessary.

The Conservatory will be open:

- Tuesday, November 5 (Election Day)
- Monday, November 11 (Veterans Day)

The Conservatory will be closed:

- Monday, September 2 (Labor Day)
- Mon-Fri, October 14-18 (Fall Break)
- Wed-Fri, November 27-29 (Thanksgiving Break)

Questions or information concerning the Conservatory should be addressed to the Conservatory Office at 931.572.1515 or email conservatory@fbct.org.
